Shaughnessy Village Residence is a budget hotel offering St Giles students independence at a low cost. It is well located approximately 30 minutes by bus away from the school.

It is located in the heart of Vancouver, providing a convenient, central location, just minutes from major shopping, bus routes and downtown. Shaughnessy's location also allows a convenient direct route to and from the airport.

The rooms are small 'pod-style' single studio suites with a sofabed, study desk, TV, small refrigerator and microwave, and private bathrooms. Linen and towels are provided for guests. Full maid service is available at a nominal fee.

A hot breakfast is included in the cost of your room and there is an on-site restaurant for other meals, or you can use the microwave in your room.

There is a communal TV lounge and study area, a small exercise room, an outdoor (heated) swimming pool and outdoor and indoor hot tubs. There is free internet in the communal lounge. It is also available for a fee in your room.
